IN THE UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT FOR THE EASTERN DISTRICT OF CALIFORNIA

10 UNITED STATES OF AMERICA, )
11 Plaintiff, ) No. Cr. S-03-511 GEB
12 v. ) MOTION FOR LEAVE TO DISMISS
13 STEPHEN D. OLES, ) PURSUANT TO RULE 48(a); 14 Defendant. ) ORDER

16 The United States of America hereby moves pursuant to Rule 17 48(a) of the Federal Rules of Criminal Procedure for leave to 18 dismiss the Indictment in this case. In support thereof, the United 19 States represents as follows:

20       1. This case was indicted on December 3, 2003, after defendant
21 Oles became a fugitive from prosecution in a separate fraud case
22 pending in this district, United States v. Stephen D. Oles, Cr. S-
23 98-450 GEB. Oles was also a fugitive in a similar fraud case
24 pending in the Southern District of West Virginia.

25       2. As set forth in the Government's motion for leave to 26 dismiss the Indictment as to Defendant Oles in that case, filed
27 contemporaneously herewith, in 2003 Oles was arrested and then
28 prosecuted in the United Kingdom, and in late 2006 he was extradited

1 to the United States. On December 4, 2006, defendant Oles signed a 2 plea agreement in the Southern District of West Virginia, pursuant 3 to which he agreed to plead guilty to conspiracy, wire fraud and 4 obstruction of justice charges in that district. Pursuant to the 5 agreement, which was signed by Assistant U.S. Attorneys handling 6 both the West Virginia case and the cases pending against Oles in 7 this district, Oles' conduct in the Eastern District of California 8 case was to be considered as relevant conduct at sentencing in the 9 West Virginia case, and victims in this district were to be included 10 in the restitution ordered in that case. In exchange, the 11 Government agreed to dismiss this case and the underlying case
12 against Oles in this district. On January 16, 2007, defendant Oles
13 pleaded guilty in U.S. District Court in Charleston, West Virginia
14 pursuant to the plea agreement.

15       3. On April 16, 2007, defendant Oles was sentenced in U.S.
16 District Court in West Virginia to 121 months in prison, and ordered 17 to pay $2,023,057 to victims, including the victims in the 18 underlying case in this district. Accordingly, pursuant to the plea 19 agreement with defendant Oles, the Government now seeks leave to 20 dismiss the indictment in this case.

22 Date: April 18, 2007 Respectfully Submitted,
